CUSTOMER COMMENTS OR NOTES:

Please note that the yearbook is ONLINE ONLY, available to members for download as a PDF.

EDITORIAL STATEMENT. The ProService Directory/Yearbook is published primarily for the members of NESDA (National Electronics Service Dealers Assn.) and ISCET (International Society of Certified Electronics Technicians). It is a compilation of professional information and technical and reference aids for the electronics industry. This 5.5 X 8.5 book is designed to be kept nearby for quick reference throughout the year.

Readers sell and/or service camcorders, VCRs, computers and peripherals, radios, televisions, two-way communication devices, mobile phones, broadcast MATV and satellite antenna systems, major appliances, microwave ovens and other small appliances, auto sound, medical and industrial electronic items and other types of electronic products.

Among the information presented in the directory is:

- NESDA/ISCET officers and staff
- Technical training information
- Certification information for electronics technicians and service managers
- Listings of major electronics manufacturers, parts distributors, commercial and trade publications, educational sources, extended warranty suppliers, and professional trade associations.

HOW TO SEND YOUR AD. Ads should be high resolution PDF, JPG, or TIF. If sending a PDF, please be sure your PDF includes the fonts. Email your ad to sheila@nesda.com. Please scan the other side of this space reservation form containing your company and billing information and include with your email.

You may also send your ad on physical media, such as a CD or flash drive. Please mail to:

AD DEADLINES/ISSUE AND CLOSING DATES

Published annually
Space closing: November 15
Materials closing: December 1
Issue date: January 15

If we don't receive your ad by the deadline, you will forfeit the space and you will not be credited if you have already paid. The only way to reserve space is via paying for your ad and supplying artwork by the stated deadline. If a copy of any new ad, or indication of a repeat ad, is not received by the editor, the advertiser will be responsible for space charges whether or not the correct ad is run.

PUBLISHER'S CONDITIONS. No conditions, printed or otherwise, appearing on the space order, billing or copy instructions that conflict with the publisher's stated policies will be binding on the publisher. Failure to make the order correspond in price or otherwise with the currently valid rate is regarded as clerical error and publication will be made and charged for upon the terms of the schedule in force without further notice.

CIRCULATION. Distribution is made via PDF download from the NESDA or ISCET website to members of NESDA and ISCET. Additional distribution is made to new members and throughout the year.

BILLING AND PAYMENT. Payment must be made via credit card at the time your ad is placed. No ad will be printed without having received payment. Please supply credit card or mail a check after sending your ad and space reservation form (email to sheila@nesda.com) or fax to 817/921-3741.

REJECTIONS AND CANCELLATIONS. Neither the advertiser nor its agency may cancel any advertising after the closing date of the yearbook. The publisher may reject any advertising for any cause.

Advertisers and advertising agencies assume liability for all content, including text, illustrations and representation of advertisements printed, and also assume liability for any claims arising therefrom against the publisher.

OVERSIZED ADS. The publisher reserves the right to limit the size of space to be occupied by an advertisement. Any oversized ad received (with any dimension exceeding the specifications of the designated size) may be mechanically or photographically reduced by the publisher without notice.

MISSING AD COPY. Whenever advertising copy or a scheduled change in ad copy covered by an uncanceled insertion order has not been received, for any reason, by the publisher on the scheduled closing date for materials, the publisher will fill the reserved space with (a) copy from a previously run ad; (b) copy or an acknowledgment produced by the publisher on behalf of the advertiser; or (c) house ads available to the publisher that fit the reserved space. The advertiser will remain liable for payment at the scheduled rate.

INDEX LISTINGS. The providing of any service such as listings in the advertiser index, is an extra, free service over and above the space order. Therefore, the publisher assumes no liability for errors or omissions.

MECHANICAL REQUIREMENTS

Preferred Format: Press Quality PDF
PC-compatible CD or USB drive containing all fonts and graphics used in the ad, a printed hard copy, and an indication of which program was used. Ad may be submitted as EPS or PDF.
